

Scenes from the Arts and Cultural Program Creative Writing workshop run by Sue Gebhardt in her home on Sunday 25 May

Five participants learned a lot from Sue, surprised each other, and had lots of fun!

Sue starts the group off with the rules for unblocking creativity.

Julie's use of a Braille typewriter was an interesting contrast to the paper and pencil technique. The only really essential vision is the creative vision inside!

Sandra and Vi engrossed in an "I remember" exercise.

Sue passes on some last hints and suggestions for regular writing commitments.
